

Marcks <sup>05</sup> two bedroom

806 sq.ft.

All prices, sizes and specifications are subject to change without notice. E.A.O.E.

Gerhard Marcks was a German sculptor, who is also well-known for his drawings, woodcuts, lithographs and ceramics. In 1919, when Walter Gropius founded the Bauhaus, Marcks was one of the first three faculty members to be hired. He served as Form Master of the school's Pottery Workshop.

BAUHAUS